“ . . . we're thrilled which will provide you with a spot in 12 months eleven on the country Dance Centre . . . ” the tale of Carmen Morton, a fifteen-year-old from a operating classification family members in Brisbane, who's permitted into the prestigious Queensland Dance tuition of Excellence for her ultimate years of excessive school.

Carmen Morton does conflict with Harry Potter for "most disliked protagonist". And wins. i actually don't love her at all. might be if i used to be the particular objective age for the ebook i might West End Shuffle have extra sympathy, yet even then i feel i would nonetheless locate West End Shuffle her annoying. (It's now not approximately it being a "modern" ballet story. Jean Ure writes awesome smooth ballet tales with protagonists i do not determine with in any respect - Jamie for example.) I additionally did not imagine the writing was once all that crash hot. i have extra NJP books on my stack - either sci/fantasy - that i am quite hoping can be better. yet West finish Shuffle has been round for ages, so she's had time to improve. She does have a marvellous experience of place, though. most of the publication happens within the Brisbane CBD, and that i comprehend these streets and enjoyed examining approximately them. The characterisation, though, is excessive in a Joey Bettany's first test type of way. Ella is particularly a lot Malvina... too twisted to be believed. Compounded through Carmen's gullability. I imagine i will persist with Jean Ure.
